

JAMMAR MOGULS LLC – WEBSITE PRIVACY

Privacy Policy was last updated on April 30, 2024.

A. Commitment to Privacy

JamMar Moguls LLC prioritizes the privacy and security of our users' personal information. We collect personal information voluntarily provided by users during registration, email subscriptions, and other interactions requiring data entry on our website. We assert our sole ownership of this collected information, which is not sold, shared, or rented outside the stipulations of this privacy policy.

B. Cookie Policy

Our website utilizes cookies to enhance user experience by managing sessions and storing user preferences. Cookies also enable us to track trends and user activities to improve website functionality and content personalization. Users should be aware that disabling cookies may necessitate frequent re-authentication and could restrict access to certain website functionalities.

C. Third-Party Interactions

We engage with third-party entities to collect aggregated statistical data to optimize our website and align our services with user preferences. This data is collected in a way that does not personally identify users unless such identification is authorized explicitly by the user. Additionally, third-party services are employed for email marketing and customer support tasks, and these partners are bound by our privacy standards to safeguard your information.

D. Data Security

While we employ commercially reasonable security measures to protect your data, no system is infallible. The transmission of information via the internet or electronic storage can never be completely secure, thus we cannot guarantee absolute security. Personal information may be disclosed to trusted third parties essential to our operations, subject to strict confidentiality agreements.

E. Consent and Modifications to Privacy Policy

By using the JamMar Moguls LLC website, you consent to our privacy practices. This policy may change to reflect new regulations, adjustments in company policies, or shifts in industry practices, with updates posted directly on this page. We do not actively notify users of such changes; it is your responsibility to review this page periodically. Continued use of our website after changes signifies your acceptance of the new terms.

F. Age Restrictions and Child Safety

Our services are intended for adults aged 18 and above. We do not knowingly collect or store any personal information from children under 18. Parents or guardians should supervise their children's internet activities to ensure they do not submit personal information to our site without permission. If we discover that a child under 18 has provided us with personal information, we will delete it immediately.

G. Compliance with Children's Online Privacy Protection Act (COPPA)

We comply with COPPA and do not knowingly collect personal information from children under 13. Parents are encouraged to be proactive in monitoring their children's online activities. Should we inadvertently collect information from a child under 13 without parental consent, we will remove this information promptly from our records.

H. Information Management in Business Transitions

In the event of a merger, acquisition, or sale of assets, personal information held by JamMar Moguls LLC may be transferred as part of the transaction. You acknowledge that such transfers may occur, and that any acquirer of our assets may process your personal information as described in this policy.

I. International Data Transfers

JamMar Moguls LLC operates on a global scale. As such, we may transfer and store the personal information we collect in countries outside of your home country, including in the United States. We take all necessary steps to ensure that data transfers comply with international privacy standards and that your information is treated securely and in accordance with this Privacy Policy.

J. Data Breach Notification

In the unlikely event of a data breach, we will promptly notify affected individuals if there is a risk of serious harm due to the breach. Notifications will be made in accordance with applicable laws and will include details on the nature of the breach, the possible consequences, and the measures being taken to address it.
